Reaching Reluctant Readers

Storytelling, Puppetry, and Creative Dramatic Arts as Literacy Tools:
 The Things We Learn with Joy We Remember Forever

Fri., Nov. 7, 2014

S.W. Chatham Library

A FREE workshop for Teachers, Media Specialists, Librarians, Education Majors & Parents

Presenter: Dr. Pat Feehan, Associate Professor

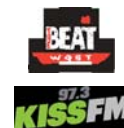

School of Library & Information Science

University of South Carolina

Learn to make literature come alive!

For details, visit www.liveoakpl.org or call (912)652-3603.

Many thanks to our generous festival sponsors!

Many THANKS to the Hyatt Regency Savannah, Savannah Special Events, and Nature's Calling for their in-kind support!

This event would not be possible without the hard work of many volunteers, library staff members and community partners! Thank you!

And thank you to high school student Danielle Messing for her wonderful poster art illustration of a young girl reading in the woods.
